Two people injured in Ain al-Hilweh clash

Clashes erupted on Tuesday in the Ain al-Hilweh Palestinian refugee camp in Lebanon's Sidon between members of the Fatah Movement and Jund al-Sham.

A Fatah movement member of the Al-Jomaa family and a Jund al-Sham member of the Al-Shaabi family were injured in the clash, the National News Agency reported.

Meanwhile, the Palestinian liaison committee made efforts to placate the clashes.

The troubled Ain al-Hilweh refugee camp has been the scene of recurring violence as Islamist and secular Palestinian factions have vied for power within the area.
